The French Club is open to anyone interested in the French language or the French culture. It is a very active group, with regular meetings featuring films, talks from lively, interesting foreign visitors, demonstrations of foods and crafts, and the much appreciated and extremely lovely tea at Christmas, centered around the traditional Yule log. And we cannot skip mention of the annual Spring picnic. The French Club calendar is full of fun as well as learning.

The Student Education Association was organized to promote the better understanding of education as a profession and an involvement in learning about the role of the educator both during teacher training and later in practice. SEA is affiliated with the state and national teacher organizations and provides for its members their first professional association with their chosen careers.

DR. CHARLES V. WRIGHT

Dr. Wright, President of East Central Junior College, is more than a busy man. He is very involved in all aspects of college life. Ours is a growing and progressive campus, and Dr. Wright's leadership is a key element in our movement into a brighter future in the eighties.

ACTING AWARDS-PLAYER'S BANQUET APRIL 22, 1981

Many people put in many hours-much sweat, occasional blood and even tears go into the productions of the dinner theater and the musical. The audiences get their "rewards" during the performances. On banquet night, the players get theirs-along with Mr. Peterson.

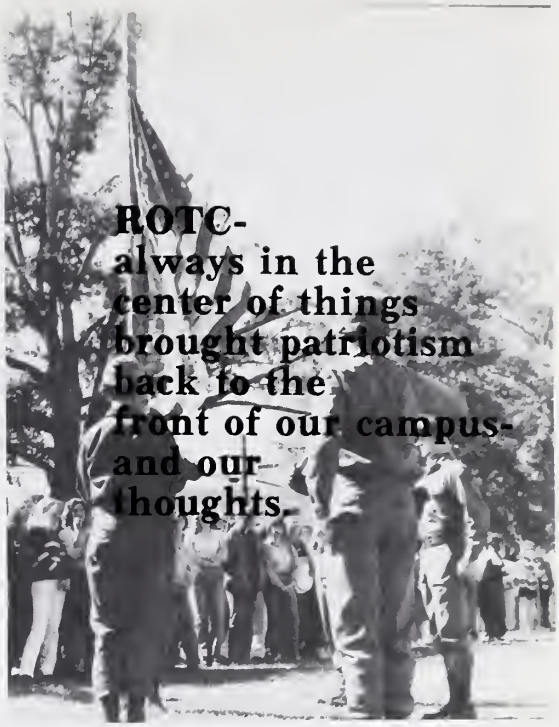
The annual Phi Theta Kappa Banquet was held during the spring semester in the Gold Room. Officers, both incoming and outgoing highlighted the activities of the year and plans for next year. Some PTK members attended National Convention in Houston, Texas.

CADET OFFICERS
Cathy Moore, Sharon Hudnall, Al Haralson, Capt. Tennemon, Anthony Johnson, Laura McDonald, David Smith



A yellow ribbon tied around the old oak tree reminded us of the hostages in Iran.

Cutting the ribbon away when they were freed was a moving moment.
